Sponsorship opportunities

One of the most important conferences in the financial world

Members of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) meet every year at the Annual Conference to discuss important issues related to the global securities and futures markets.

IOSCO MEMBERS HAVE RESOLVED TO:

cooperate in developing, implementing and promoting adherence to international regulations.

regulate and implement initiatives to protect investors, ensuring that the markets are fair, efficient and transparent.

address systematic risks and ensure confidence in and the integrity of the markets through cooperation and the exchange of information among members.

encourage development of the markets, strengthening infrastructure and implementing appropriate regulations.

Venue

- The Montego Bay Convention Centre is the Caribbean's finest offering to the convention industry.
- The Convention Centre can host up to 6,000 persons for theatre styled functions in its largest space, the 57,725 square feet Exhibition Hall.
- Within the 9,737 square feet of flexible, functional meeting space, there are a total of 9 meeting rooms, most with full audio/visual capabilities, all with rich maple finish, marble tiles and surround sound.
